The background of the book cover is a painting. It depicts a person with long, dark hair, seen from behind, sitting in a meditative posture on a rocky shore. They are looking across a body of water towards a distant, glowing point of light on the horizon. A bright, star-like light source is visible in the upper left sky, with its reflection shimmering down the center of the water. In the upper right corner, there is a faint, circular emblem or seal. The overall color palette is dark, with blues, greens, and greys, punctuated by the bright light and the person's orange and white striped garment.
